

When should an Invention Disclosure Form be prepared and submitted?

The Invention Disclosure Form should be completed as soon as the practice of the invention can be completely described. Timeliness in submitting disclosures is very important, as patent rights can be lost if an invention is prematurely disclosed publicly.